HEADLINES

- This could very well be a first round playoff preview if the standings hold, given Fort Wayne's perch atop the play-off line and Omaha's one-point lead in their quest for a fourth Players' Shield.

- Former Owls have a tendency to score against their former club after leaving Omaha. That's already borne out once in this fixture, when Ryan Becher scored an equalizer in their USL Cup matchup in June. Now Becher returns for league play in striking form, having been nominated for USL1 September Player of the Month.

- Fellow nominee Sergio Ors Navarro has also set a torrid pace of late for his Owls. With 4 goals in September and 9 since mid-July, the Spaniard has not just leapt into a tie for 5th in the Golden Boot rankings, but a tie for the club's all-time goalscoring record with 25 in all competitions.

- You might be able to expect a frenetic pace to this match; these are the top two teams in the league in field tilt, and each is among the league leaders in final third recoveries as well; put simply, each team wants to play on the front foot even without the ball, pressuring their opponents in their own halves.
